Spring draws to a close
Summer begins
Darkness fades
And gives way to the light

The sound is fading
but the echo arises
The chapter ends
another begins

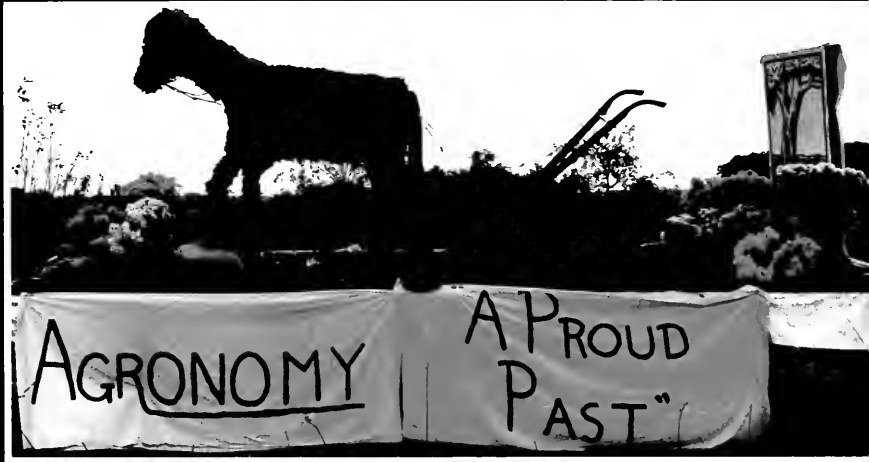

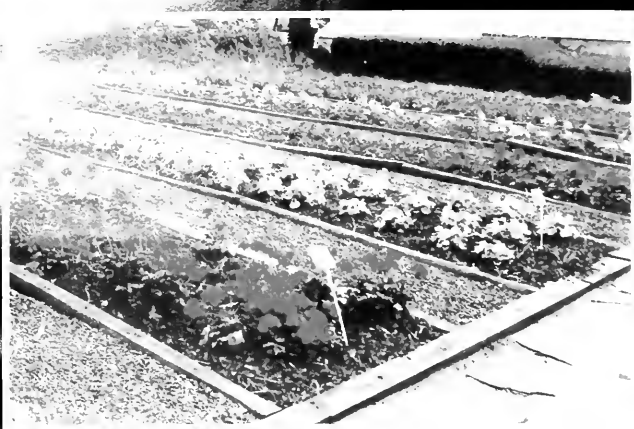

The page is complete
but there is a blank one awaiting
As our college education gives way to new career experiences

We leave the familiar surroundings
To enter new horizons
We leave our old friends
To gain new acquaintances

The pages of our scrapbook are full-
Our book is complete
No, wait, it is just beginning-
A fresh page in a new book

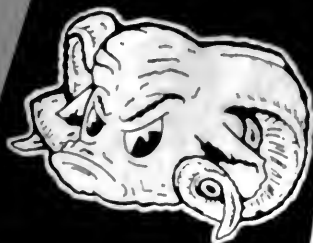

THE FEMALE GINKGO
The Ginkgo biloba is a prehistoric tree that lived with dinosaurs. The ripe seeds of the tree, like this one, are edible but are covered in a fleshy, foul-smelling seed coat. Male trees are preferred because they do not have the offensive seeds.

We must always remember that at the same time that today ends, tomorrow begins. There is never an end - just a new beginning.

Back to School - Add Back to Basics

"Hello, Mom"

Eat drink and be merry for tomorrow we diet

Well, for todays aches and pains . . .

An anal Chem test tomorrow!, your kidding right?

Full figured and proud of it

Who is that behind those foster grants

The three musketters

It's amazing what they can do with flowers

I wonder if she knows we're talking about her?

Another exciting evening with Dana and Kim

All dressed up and no place to go!, Where's the curlers Darcell?

Is that a donut your hiding?

Hail, Hail the gangs all here

So what's your problem

It's just a jump to the left and them a step to the right

What a happy crew

Does it again
Penn. College

Pay attention Bob this is how it is done

Why's everybody always picking on me?

We may look crazy but we have a good time

Mr. Linta prepares his class for their deadly dozen

Are you talking to me?

No, it can't be mush again?

I'm sick and tired of this garbage!

Smile pretty for the picture

It's a vicious circle

Smile it can't get worse

Even you Gale can build a quonset hut!

Apathy? . . . Who cares?

Is that a dining hall menu?

I can't believe I ate the whole thing

Tell me about it George

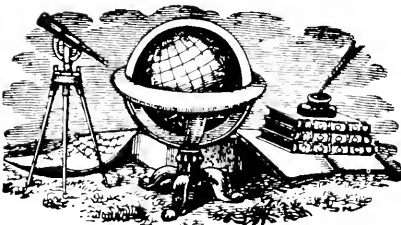

Would you vote for this man?

No caption necessary

I'm never in the right place at the right time

The bond that links your "true family" is not one of blood, but of respect & joy in each other's life. Rarely do members of one "family" grow up under the same roof. "Ma, Pa & the kids" you will never be forgotten. Many thanks to my real family without you I never would have made it. Editor's Message

This year is finally over and the 1984 Cornucopia has made its debut as a scrapbook. I hope all of you are as happy as I am about its turnout. I only hope it will stand as a remembrance of the many happy times you've had at Del Val, as you turn the pages of this volume of the Cornucopia.

To my staff Thank you for all of your help, and being a part of this years book. To my editors thank you for all of your hard work, and dedication even when times were bad. To the extra special people whom with out their unending concern, dedication and help this book would not have been possible, THANK YOU!! Each and every one of you are special; Gale Backhus, Tracy Edwards, Dawn Havens, Debbie Hoffman, Dennis McLaughlin, Kathy McNamara, Noreen Powers, Mary Sandrock, Jackie Stoffa, Carl Vivaldi, Ralph Wahl and last but not least Missy Young. I wish next years staff the very best of luck, and any help I can give.

Tony, Sherrie and your staff thank you for all of your fantastic photography, support, guidance and advice you have given for the yearbook and to myself. Without your added touches this book wouldn't have been what it is today.

Mrs. Sangston and Mrs. Powell thank you for all of your help, support, and interest in this book. A special thank you to Mr. O'Brien for adding advice when things seemed bad, and for listening to my problems and helping me complete everything before my deadlines. This book truly wouldn't be possible without you.

Mr. Sauer, Thank you just doesn't seem enough to say for all of your concern, dedication and help. So many times I've felt like throwing in the towel, but you have picked up the pieces and made everything seem much brighter. If I didn't have your help I would have given up a long time ago and this book wouldn't have been in existence.

To all of my friends thank you for all of your support and spirit and encouraging me to continue with this book throughout the year.

Mom and Dad, Maryann and Linda, thank you for being there with much needed support, guidance and understanding when I needed it and when it seemed like I didn't need it. I love you all.

As you look at this the last and final page I hope you are satisfied and enjoyed the book. Finally I would like to say that this is perhaps the most rewarding yet challenging tasks I have ever taken on and completed. The experience I have earned is unending and in some ways I wish being a part of it wouldn't end. But the time has come to move on to other more challenging endeavors and I will have to look up and out and only be proud that I was a part of putting together every student's memories for the year at Delaware Valley College. In time people will forget about the people who had a part in putting this yearbook together which is expected, but they will never forget all of the love, growth, experience, and especially the memories they have obtained from Delaware Valley College which also is expected.

Sincerely,

Diane Elwood
